Thanks Kate! That is a great point – depending on the personality of the child, this may or may not be a difficult act to complete! My kids are far from shy so was not hard at all... but it's great to think about the special ways our children can be kind depending on what comes naturally to them, and gently pushing their boundaries when appropriate.

Successful people “think” success all the time. That is why their goals are firmly lodged in their subconscious. While most believe that having a long-term goal is crucial to success, successful people understand that without small, daily goals, you will get demotivated easily; success will in turn become hard.

What is a QSEHRA? QSEHRA (pronounced “Q-Sarah” for fun) is a new, more efficient way for small businesses and non-profits to offer health insurance to their employees. It's a game-changer that many are just now discovering. To cut quickly through the insurance jargon (it stands for “Qualified Small Employer Health Reimbursement Arrangement” by the way), a QSEHRA allows small ...

A big lie (German: große Lüge) is a propaganda technique. The expression was coined by Adolf Hitler, when he dictated his 1925 book Mein Kampf, about the use of a lie so "colossal" that no one would believe that someone "could have the impudence to distort the truth so infamously". Hitler believed the technique was used by Jews to blame Germany's loss in World War I on German general Erich ...
