The Mini is a small economy car produced by the English-based British Motor Corporation (BMC) and its successors from 1959 until 2000. The original is considered an icon of 1960s British popular culture. Its space-saving transverse engine, front-wheel drive layout – allowing 80% of the area of the car's floorpan to be used for passengers and luggage – influenced a generation of car makers.

1988/89: Miami who once played home to an ABA team known as the Floridians, got its first NBA team in 1988 as the Heat were the first of two teams heading to the Sunshine state in a four team expansion over two years. The expansion Heat would not find much help in the expansion draft but in the entry draft the Heat were able to select Syracuse star center Rony Seikaly.
