It just occurred to me on this, my 100th post, that I don't think I've ever really answered the question, "What is a Christian Entrepreneur?" That seems pretty silly of me since it is the name of the blog. It's a simple enough question that would seem self explanatory at first glance, but the more you really stop to think about it the deeper and more complex the answer becomes.

Media rankings of business schools are an integral part of the business school world. There are only two major full-time MBA rankings – the Financial Times and The Economist – that directly compare schools from around the world. BusinessWeek and Forbes create separate lists for U.S. and the rest of the world, while US News & World only focuses on the U.S. market.
