The Starman Omnibus, Vol. 5 by James Robinson - Goodreads

Starman changed the way I look at comics. The series debuted in 1994, when I was a teenager, growing somewhat bored with traditional super heroes zapping and punching villains and each other. But Starman was different. The book was about a superhero, yes—but its protagonist, Jack Knight, wasn't ...

Starman Omnibus (Volume) - Comic Vine

The original Starman – Ted Knight – was a Golden Age hero who has slowly faded from popular consciousness, not having the staying power of some of his other peers. But Starman is very clearly incidental to the story which Robinson seeks to tell here. It could be any other hero and (as Robinson concedes in his on-going afterword) it almost was.
