When I began work on my memoir, Hold Me Close, Let Me Go: A Mother, a Daughter and an Adolescence Survived, about my daughter's action-packed coming of age, I didn't know a thing about arcs. I thought, I lived this story. I'll just write it down the way it happened. Type, type, type. It was as if I decided to build a house and just started nailing together boards without giving a thought ...

Terminal cancer patient releases his first public service announcement (PSA) aimed at encouraging faster diagnosis of head and neck cancer. It was November 25 th, 2015, the day before Thanksgiving and I was working from home. After responding to some emails that morning, I got ready and tiptoed gingerly up and down the cold white tiles of our bathroom floor, waiting for the shower water to heat up.
