Every time I do a launch, I always begin with this question: How can I make it impossible for this to fail? Practically speaking, I don't think you can make failure 100% impossible. But asking this question forces me to see how I can do whatever it takes so that the odds are stacked overwhelmingly in my favor. And because of that, to date, I haven't had a failed product launch, or a launch ...

Hi Bob, To drop your time over 18 seconds for 50m will take some time and a commitment from you to do what your coach is asking you to do. There is no such thing as a full proof plan in swimming so my advice is to speak to your coach, share with them what your goals are and then work out a plan together to get your 50m time under 50sec then under 45sec and so on.
