Coin flipping, coin tossing, or heads or tails is the practice of throwing a coin in the air and checking which side is showing when it lands, in order to choose between two alternatives, sometimes used to resolve a dispute between two parties. It is a form of sortition which inherently has two possible outcomes. The party who calls the side wins.

Awesome post, Andrew! I think all the points you raised are true — but not for everyone. It takes a certain amount of exposure to the flip chart to use it properly — presenters need to have legible handwriting, not cover the flip chart as they write, and also keep some ready flip charts for non-candid scenarios.
