I have enjoyed Richard Paul Evans holiday novels for the last 3-4 years. The stories have always left me with something to think about, and I like the fact that the stories oftentimes demonstrate the power of the human spirit. When I heard Evans had a new five-part series planned, I could not wait to read the first book: The Walk.

At the end of The Walk series, I'm planning on hosting a huge "Walk party" in Key West, Florida. Mark your calendars. As I began writing The Walk it quickly became apparent that I couldn't write this book without experiencing Alan's path, so my daughter and I flew to Seattle, rented a car and began our trek.
