You always counted. Tactical voting is a farce, you have to vote for what you want, and eventually others will too. Democracy shouldn't work on a system where the second or third best party is the one with the most power, where they're immune to defeat because "well what about this other party? we can't risk them getting any power"

I for one think this is a great change, and a brilliant post. Absolutely, less time delightedly exploring still more abstruse mistake-theory-legible problems (although these are fun and the theory that total unity is possible feels good) in favor of more time spent on projects such as, "which candidates are really fighting for the people vs. just astroturfed shills" ... hear hear!
