The Thorn And Sinking Stone

Community Reviews. The Thorn and the Sinking Stone is the first book in CJ Dushinski's Thorn and Dagger series and reminded me a lot of Romeo and Juliet with its rival families, only it's set in a futuristic dystopian world and has a surprising touch of the paranormal in the mix. I enjoyed the atmosphere of Rain City and thought it was well done.

Most Helpful Customer Reviews. Set in an unspecified future, in a world destroyed by war, The Thorn and the Sinking Stone has a dark edge to it. I liked the idea of the rival gangs and their connections to the world we know - Japanese Samurai as the Black Roses, and Americans as Cowboys, for example.

ARC Review: The Thorn and the Sinking Stone by CJ Dushinski. He was the best developed character in this book and I fell in love with him. His curse (and his brother, Callan's) is impressive and something I didn't see coming. With it, he certainly took the spotlight off of Valencia as a deadly weapon for the moment, but I still expect great things from her curse.
