The great German Catholic theologian, Romano Guardini, wrote a profoundly insightful and orthodox meditation on the life of Christ entitled The Lord.. In it, he noted that no man in history ever came closer to rivaling the enormity of Christ's claim to transform human nature itself, at its roots, than did Buddha (though in a radically different way).

2. Closely related to the use of the Liturgy of the Hours is Lectio Divina, which means divine or sacred reading. The goal is praying with scripture, learning how to savor the word of God, encountering God in His Word, and becoming changed by it. This is an important aspect of monastic spirituality. Useful material can be found at the Benedictine page About Lectio Divina.
