Magicians started out as a classroom roleplaying game after-school activity at the academy I taught at a few years ago in Korea. I had just finished reading The Magicians, by Lev Grossman, and loved the idea of a person's unhappiness/dissatisfaction with the world being the source of their magic. So I came up with the better part of the game, but for teaching English and for some kids I knew had ...

I would like this except instead of forking into an apocalyptic scenario it turns out that one of the characters is a serial killer. The first couple seasons are completely normal, Friends-style sitcom stuff, then somewhere in the 3rd season things slowly start getting dark via hints that slowly become less and less subtle. At the end of season 3 it becomes obvious what's happening, and then the ...
