If the 1904 marathon at the St. Louis Olympics could be boiled down to a single crazy thing that happened to it, I would put it here. But this was the craziest sporting event that has ever occurred, and I don't think anything else even comes close.

The Craziest Sports Moments Ever - Sideline

The first goaltender mask was a metal fencing mask donned in February 1927 by Queen's University netminder Elizabeth Graham, mainly to protect her teeth. In 1930, the first crude leather model of the mask (actually an American football "nose-guard") was worn by Clint Benedict to protect his broken nose. After recovering from the injury, he abandoned the mask, never wearing one again in his career.
