The Waiting: A Supernatural Thriller: Joe Hart ...

"The Waiting" by Joe Hart is the third book I've read by this author. "The River is Dark" and "Singularity" both I rated as five star books but I can't do that with this one. The lead character "Evan Torner" for me was not a likable character. I couldn't even feel sorry for him.

The Waiting by Joe Hart - Goodreads

"The Waiting" definitely caught me a bit off guard and was a book I couldn't put down once I started it. Joe Hart's writing style immediately sucked me in, held me roughly in its grasp, and refused to let me go until it was through with me. I had no preconceived notions about "The Waiting" going into it.

Unlimited [Biography Book] ~ The Waiting - by Joe Hart

"The Waiting" is a story of love, loss, regret and insanity. Joe Hart is a new author for me, however this will not be the last book of his that I read. His writing style reminds me somewhat of Stephen King, but probably more so of King's son - Joe Hill. He's descriptive, but not as verbose as King.
