Back into it. So I finally ended my semi-hiatus of just sessions with my regulars and am fully back into it and i LOVE it. I think a big reason I was timid to expand my sessions was because I was worried this job was making me bitter, but after being back into it for a few days I realized that I really love my job and it's the most comfortable job I've had.

It seems to me that it is all about appearing in control of one's life these days and, of course, being seen to be very very busy. Most distressing on the streets of London is the army of ear piece people who take urgent hands-free calls as if they are heading-up Madonna's security team: all furrowed brows and Transatlantic accents.

YouTube has become a content phenomenon. Back in 2005 when the first YouTube video Me At The Zoo was uploaded, nobody would have imagined just how important this video sharing medium was going to be. Google clearly saw the potential of YouTube, however, and only 18 months after YouTube's co-founder shared his zoo visit with the world, Google announced it was paying $1.65 billion for the service.
