Originally posted by geminihurt. The Warden's return lacks ceremony. Two years. Two years she has been gone, from court, from social grace, from the living breath of the sky, and it has been a long road back through mud and murk, along roads that have left her weary in more than just body. When she forces the doors of the great hall, with the guards hovering at her back, the knockers clang in ...

Joe Pickett is back in his 19 th adventure in the series, and C.J. Box shows no signs of slacking off even the slightest bit. Wolf Pack is an outstanding addition to the series, and Pickett tackles dual issues as he frequently does – one timely (often environmental) issue and one more straightforward mystery.
