7 Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. 8 But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. 9 The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

Everyone familiar with the Bible knows it talks about angels and demons. But most would be surprised to learn that there's no verse in the Bible that explains where demons came from. Christians typically assume that demons are fallen angels, cast from heaven with Satan (the Devil) right before the temptation of Adam and Eve.

I have some VERY serious reservations about the numbers of women bandied about that are alleged to have served during the war. These numbers and interests started to appear shortly after a court case brought about by a woman reenactor who sued the US Park Service for refusing to allow her to portray a man at ACW living history programs.
