Richard Powers (Author of The Overstory) - Goodreads

In the hands of a lesser writer these plot elements, especially the love triangle, could so easily fall into melodrama, but what Powers offers is far from this. Loaded with natural symbolism and a strong environmental message The Echo Maker is thoughtful fiction at its best and a worthy winner of the 2006 National Book Award.

Review of The Echo Maker by Richard Powers

"The Echo Maker" is the only novel by Richard Powers that I have read so far. It's obviously the product of a curious and interesting mind, and Powers can write effectively and even eloquently in more than one register. For all that, the overall effect is less than the sum of its parts.
