Phil strongly believes that authentic ministry calls people to serve others and experience the presence of God in their lives. The four "Immanuel Passages" in Matthew offer a framework for experiencing God's presence powerfully in our lives as we love God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength and love our neighbors as we love ourselves:

A Parable: The Anvil Isaiah 40:8, "The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever." Let's begin with a parable today. Once upon a time in land before there were any cars or modern machines – a time when horses and carriages and wagons were common on the dirt roads – there was a blacksmith shop with a large, heavy, well-worn anvil.

When my grandmother died two weeks ago, I was asked to share a short eulogy at the memorial service. For the past 10 years, Grandma suffered from dementia and memory loss... so I was tempted to rewind the clock and talk about how she "really" was in her earlier years. But then I realized that would be exactly the wrong approach. Here's a transcript of what I said instead.
