The Eternal Highlander is two novellas, one by Hannah Howell and the other by Lynsay Sands. The basic premise is that there are two "vampire" Lairds that want to dilute their blood down by marrying Outsiders (us mortals). They were quite enjoyable to read, but they weren't anything special, and the storyline was a bit predictable.

I actually read this novel a couple of years ago and have been wanting to re-read the series. I enjoyed the writing and unique spine on the vampires for this series. In The Eternal Highlander we get two stories in this novel. One deals with the MacNachten clan and the other the MacAdie clan. They are family, bounded far more than by blood ties.
