The Red Tree. The Red Tree is a story without any particular narrative; a series of distinct imaginary worlds as self-contained images which invite readers to draw their own meaning in the absence of any written explanation. As a concept, the book is inspired by the impulse of children and adults alike to describe feelings using metaphor - monsters, storms, sunshine, rainbows and so on.

My younger brother does not like to read at all. The only books he ever picked up willingly was the Seventh Tower series by Garth Nix. It's been about a decade since he read them and I'm pretty sure he hasn't read anything else :/ but those books were good enough to get him to read them and I was shocked.

The RED QUEEN Series. The Red Queen series is a quartet of books, including two novellas, all published by HarperTeen at HarperCollins. The amount of books can make reading order confusing, so I suggest reading Red Queen, Glass Sword, the novellas Queen Song and Steel Scars (featured in the physical edition Cruel Crown), followed by King's Cage. The fourth and final book in the series will be ...
