At a garage sale a few years ago, I picked up a class set of My Dog Does My Homework, an anthology of fun kid poems. I can't find a place to buy it, but you could do the same activity with any anthology of poems or a website like www.poetry4kids.com. Each student has a copy of the anthology and the goal is to read through the book—five times.

If Happy Days taught us anything, it's that life was better in the fifties. People left their door unlocked at night, kids respected their elders and a guy who lived above his best friend's garage could still be cool so long as he owned a leather jacket. Well, turns out The Fonz didn't lie: despite the racism, homophobia and extra racism, the fifties were a pretty good time to be alive ...
