The Calligraphers Daughter Eugenia Kim

Eugenia Kim is the daughter of Korean immigrant parents who came to America shortly after the Pacific War. She has published short stories and essays in journals and anthologies, including Echoes Upon Echoes: New Korean American Writings. An MFA graduate of Bennington College, Eugenia teaches fiction at Fairfield University's low-residency MFA Creative Writing Program.

The Calligrapher's Daughter by Eugenia Kim

" . . . a gorgeous achievement." —Min Jin Lee, author of Pachinko Inspired by a true story, The Kinship of Secrets is a riveting novel of two sisters, one raised in the United States, the other in South Korea, and the family that bound them together even as the Korean War kept them apart. Are the bonds of love strong enough to reconnect their family over distance, time, and war?
