One of the hardest things about literary magazines is dealing with the overwhelming number of them. You can't keep up-to-date on all of them, so how do you decide which are really worth your time? Of course, everyone knows about Poetry Magazine, and I'd like to hear of a writer who isn't on the New Yorker email list, but there are so many wonderful, small publications out there, just [...]

2. Poetry, verse agree in referring to the work of a poet. The difference between poetry and verse is usually the difference between substance and form. Poetry is lofty thought or impassioned feeling expressed in imaginative words: Elizabethan poetry. Verse is any expression in words which simply conforms to accepted metrical rules and structure: the differences between prose and verse.

The Complaint: or, Night-Thoughts on Life, Death, & Immortality, better known simply as Night-Thoughts, is a long poem by Edward Young published in nine parts (or "nights") between 1742 and 1745.. The poem is written in blank verse. It describes the poet's musings on death over a series of nine "nights" in which he ponders the loss of his wife and friends, and laments human frailties.
