The God Who Sees

The God Who Sees. It is the angel of the Lord who finds Hagar. This is the first appearance of the phrase angel of the Lord in Scripture, and as we compare it with other uses, we find that this refers to none other than the pre-incarnate Christ. He says several things to her.

Daily Devotion: The God Who Sees (Gen 16:7-16)

But I can point you to the God who chooses you when others reject you, who loves you dearly when others mistreat you (c.f. Col. 3:12), and the God who sees you when others ignore you." God's blessings are so rich, personal obedience is so powerful a force in the Christian's life, the joy of fellowship with God is so real and animating, that just knowing God chooses us, sees us and loves us dearly is all we need to keep moving forward.

The God Who Sees | Gary Thomas

I AM El Roi, the God who sees you. Have you not known? Have you not heard? Your LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. I do not faint or grow weary. I created everything you see and everything you do not see. I created it for you, Dear One. Though the physical earth is in a fallen state, you are not of this world. ...
