Different people have tried to classify countries into different groups. This is usually done either by looking at how rich people are, on average, in different countries, or how well-developed the political system is. Most of the time there are two groups, namely developing countries and developed ones. Sometimes there are three groups, in which case the third group is between developing and ...

From 1979 to 2004, the Fort Payne-based country music band Alabama was one of the most successful musical acts in the United States. Millions of fans were drawn to the group's songs about their southern roots and their love for Fort Payne, for the state of Alabama, and for the South. The members of the group are also active in supporting local charities and members of the U.S. Armed Forces.
