The Hostile Hospital - Wikipedia

The Hostile Hospital (book 8 of 13) is the first volume (I believe) to introduce the idea that the children themselves have to do things to survive that, while understandable, are not 'noble' when viewed in isolation. This begins in earnest the theme of noble vs villainous people that dominates to the end of the series.

The Hostile Hospital: Part One | Lemony Snicket Wiki ...

As with the entire series, "The Hostile Hospital" is just as enjoyable as the rest. This book is seasoned with cheerful singing, several close-calls, and surgical evil. One of the themes in this series is the apathy of adults toward children (and life in general), and this apathy actually comes in handy for the Baudelaires this time.
