This site is about seeing through the illusion of separation and waking up to the boundless wholeness that is all there is. Joan Tollifson has an affinity with Advaita, Zen Buddhism and radical nonduality but has her own unique and original expression. She points to the simplicity of what is, as it is -- the ever-present, ever-changing seamlessness of being.

Man surprised me most about humanity. Because he sacrifices his health in order to make money. Then he sacrifices money to recuperate his health. And then he is so anxious about the future that he does not enjoy the present; the result being that he does not live in the present or the future; he lives as if he is never going to die, and then dies having never really lived.
