Summary and reviews of The Kingdom of Ohio by Matthew Flaming

Matthew Flaming's debut novel The Kingdom of Ohio is a sometimes disjointed mix of fantasy and history, with a setting only slightly off from the America we all know. In Flaming's version, the titular monarchy developed when a French nobleman was sold a parcel of land in what later became Toledo, Ohio, and it's from this region that Cheri-Anne Toledo, a descendent of its original ruler, emerges in 1900.
