The Mote in God's Eye is a science fiction novel by American writers Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle, first published in 1974. The story is set in the distant future of Pournelle's CoDominium universe, and charts the first contact between humanity and an alien species. The title of the novel is a wordplay on the Biblical "The Mote and the Beam" parable and is the nickname of a star.

How do we tune in and start hearing God's voice? We learn God's voice by reading the Bible, memorizing and meditating on it. When God speaks to us it will usually be through His Word, and it will never go against what it says in the Bible. The more we learn about God's Word the more we learn to hear His voice.

We neither condone nor advocate human hatred. The hatred of God, however (which is one of His perfect attributes), runs the current of the scripture, is plainly pronounced, and is vitally important for everyone to know about, as it serves as the basis for the eternal consequence for man's unrepentant sin.
