Argues in four points that a careful reading of the New Testament requires some kind of trinitarian understanding of the relationship between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Contends that Jesus' divinity and unity with the Father, plus the Spirit's divinity and personhood supports the concept of the trinity.

Money. To start with money: The Bible in the New Testament does not tell us precisely how much to give. Yet more often than not church covenants do stipulate a certain percentage.. We recently heart about a church where prospective members had to sign a contract in which they promise to tithe 10% of their income to that church.
