"It's all quiet on the West End Front but The Wipers Times is on manoeuvres once again. Following a successful London run and participation in the BBC's Passchendaele Centenary commemorations in Ypres, The Wipers Times is embarking on an eleven week tour. A hundred years after World War I, audiences nationwide will have a chance to see this forgotten true story about a satirical trench ...

The Malazan Book of the Fallen - Steven Erikson. I am on the third book in this series, and I adore it. It has fantastical, rich plots and amazing places. The first book is largely considered the worst because the writing is poor and characters are underdeveloped, but if you stick with it past that first book it becomes AMAZING.
