The Best and the Brightest (1972) is an account by journalist David Halberstam of the origins of the Vietnam War published by Random House. The focus of the book is on the foreign policy crafted by academics and intellectuals who were in John F. Kennedy's administration, and the consequences of those policies in Vietnam. The title referred to Kennedy's "whiz kids"—leaders of industry and ...

I can't help but wonder if Halberstam got it right about the Minimax. When I started doing some research on it, despite the lack of pictures available, all sources described it as a very small vehicle; essentially a sub-compact FWD hatchback, probably closer in size to the gen1 VW Golf, if not even smaller; perhaps more like the original Fiesta.
