The Traveling Man Quotes Showing 1-24 of 24 “Do you know what I dream about? My dream would be to die looking at the lights on the Ferris wheel. When I get old, when my body has given up, that’s what I want to see. And in that dream, you’re standing next to me.” — Jane Harvey-Berrick, The Traveling Man.

The Traveling Man Quotes by Jane Harvey-Berrick

When does optimism become stupidity? And what happens when the man you’re in love with is never still, always moving, always traveling? Do you say goodbye, or do you leave behind everything that you’ve worked for, everything that you’ve ever known? Can a traveling carnival be my home? Oh. You thought I had the answers. No, sorry.
