The Stones Of Summer: Dow Mossman ... - amazon.com

The Stones of Summer is a complex, original, and passionate novel written at fever pitch, as wonderful as it is difficult, and ultimately very rewarding. Imagine Thomas Wolfe and Cormac McCarthy collaborating on a book titled Under the Volcano/Call it Sleep. The climax is an astonishing tour de force. The Stones of Summer is one of those surprising and unafraid works-of-art that breaks all the ...

The Stones of Summer by Dow Mossman ... - Barnes & Noble

An arresting though flawed first novel, absolutely uncompromising in its insistence on forcing the reader into the semi-crazy, but completely logical, world of its protagonist, Dawes Williams (alias Seriphus Handsaw, the scribe, also alias ""Hyoot John,"" his bandit-slaying ancestor). The first part of the book, as Dawes grows up in Rapid Cedar, Iowa, somewhere between ironic redneckism and ...
