That insecurity plagued me throughout this project, in which I visited every Michelin three-star restaurant in Paris.I tried to combat it by remembering that our audience – the readers of Paris by Mouth and the visitors who join our food tours – are not themselves going to return multiple times to L'Ambroisie or Ledoyen. The overwhelming majority cannot afford to do so.

Check out take two from this post from last year to see the Queenship of Mary Ice Cream Sundaes we usually make for this feast. My kids love making them and best of all, there's almost no prep work by mom! And, last but not least, I'm continuing the "least effective blogging break in all the land" by showing up on someone else's blog. Again.
