I had read Passions of the mind, a very good book by Irving Stone, Lust for Life, another good book, and had struggled through a bit too much detail in The Agony and the Ecstasy, until almost to the end, then I never finished it, but did see the movie, which was good. This book, The Origin, I could tell at once is also heavy on detail.

Irving Stone (Author of The Agony and the Ecstasy)

Irving Stone gives us a beautiful depiction of the character of the real Charles Darwin, and how he came to his breakthrough scientific insights. Charles Darwin, it turns out, was an immensely likeable character, with an adventuresome spirit, immense energy, a genuine humility, and warm sense of humor.
