The Gospels Power Amp Message

When God spoke to mankind, the Church totally rejected what God stated. There is only one instance in the Gospels where the Voice of God spoke directly and openly to mankind, and provided the prodigal sons and daughters an ultra-important message -- but the leaders of the fourth century Church did not like what the Voice of God said, so they changed the very words of God in order to totally ...

Question: "Why is sola fide important?" Answer: Sola fide, which means "faith alone," is important because it is one of the distinguishing characteristics or key points that separate the true biblical Gospel from false gospels. At stake is the very Gospel itself and it is therefore a matter of eternal life or death. Getting the Gospel right is of such importance that the Apostle Paul would ...

Jesus' interactions with women are an important element in the theological debate about Christianity and women. Women are prominent in the story of Christ Jesus. He was born of a woman, had numerous interactions with women, and was seen first by women after his resurrection. He commissioned the women to go and tell his disciples that he is risen, which is the essential message of Christianity.

In order to understand why the gospels in the New Testament were written, we must know exactly what was occurring during that period in history. When the Gospel of Mark was written, we know there was a great deal of political unrest due to the Emperor Nero. The main question we must ask ourselves is, if the Gospel of Mark was written as a political response to Nero's reign instead of a ...
