From that will grow this very interesting novel. Lena is a transcriptionist. She sits alone in a small room on an upper floor of the Record, a newspaper in New York city, and listens to the recordings of reporters hour after hour, day after day, in a job that seems...endless and is bordering on obsolescence.

The Transcriptionist by Amy Rowland - Goodreads

The Transcriptionist is a great novel, as wonderfully great as any novel I have every read. Amy Rowland is a fabulously gifted talent who has written a superb work. The jacket cover on the back calls the novel a "masterpeice" and I agree. There is no need to disclose the story. Just read it.
