The Female Brain Louann Brizendine

The Female Brain is a book written by the American neuropsychiatrist Louann Brizendine in 2006. The main thesis of the book is that women's behavior is different from that of men due, in large measure, to hormonal differences. Brizendine says that the human female brain is affected by the following hormones: estrogen, progesterone, testosterone, (), neurotransmitters (dopamine, serotonin), and ...

Gender, in common usage, refers to the differences between men and women. Gender is an individual's self perception of being male or female. Although "gender" is commonly used interchangeably with "sex," within the academic fields of cultural studies, gender studies, and the social sciences in general, the term "gender" often refers to purely social rather than biological differences.
