"Serenity" is the series pilot for the American science fiction television series Firefly created by Joss Whedon. However, Fox executives were not satisfied with this as a pilot, and so instead, "The Train Job" was created as a second pilot and was the first episode of the series aired. "Serenity" was not aired until the end of the series' run on December 20, 2002.

Serenity is not freedom from the storm, but peace amid the storm. – Author Unknown Our lives are lived at full speed. It can feel like there's no slow motion option, no slow lanes where we can knock down the speed for a little while and no timeouts to use – it's just life played at the speed of sound.

Serenity is a fictional spaceship that appears in Joss Whedon's Firefly television series and related works. Set in the 26th century, the series follows the nine-person crew of the Firefly-class vessel, a small transport ship, as they earn a living through various legal and illegal means. The ship is the main setting; it appears in all fourteen episodes, the film, and several comics.
