The Whispering Muse Sjon

1. Burial Rites by Hannah Kent, 2013. A brilliant literary debut, inspired by a true story: the final days of a young woman accused of murder in Iceland in 1829. Set against Iceland's stark landscape, Hannah Kent brings to vivid life the story of Agnes, who, charged with the brutal murder of her former master, is sent to an isolated farm to await execution.

"For me, [The Birdwoman's Palate] was a bittersweet road trip—I'm going to resist all the culinary metaphors, because they could get hackneyed, but I could pull them out: redolent, peppery, silky come to mind. Running through the novel's riot of textures, smells, tastes, is the closeness of disease and death, with lust, self-discovery and love.
