PERPETUAL PEACE. Whether this satirical inscription on a Dutch innkeeper's sign upon which a burial ground was painted had for its object mankind in general, or the rulers of states in particular, who are insatiable of war, or merely the philosophers who dream this sweet dream, it is not for us to decide.

Immanuel Kant (1724–1804) is the central figure in modern philosophy. He synthesized early modern rationalism and empiricism, set the terms for much of nineteenth and twentieth century philosophy, and continues to exercise a significant influence today in metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, political philosophy, aesthetics, and other fields.

The Cahier de Doléances (1789): When the deputies or representatives of the three estates came to the royal palace in 1789, they brought with them their list of grievances, or cahiers de doléances, which were to be presented to Louis XVI. We are fortunate to have many examples of the cahiers at our disposal and a few are presented here.
