The Bells Of Times Square

"The Bells of Times Square" was one of the most beautiful, heart breaking books I've read. A World War II historical, this book it's emotional, angsty, raw, powerful, that will touch your heart and your soul.

The Bells of Times Square by Amy Lane - Goodreads

The Bells of Times Square tells the story of Nate Meyer, a photographer in the USAAF, who's plane is shot down over France. He is the only one who survives the crash and is saved by an escaped POW. They find themselves in a small, abandoned house, hiding out from the Germans until a French resistance fighter enters their lives.

Nestled in the heart of midtown New York, this little shop specializes in all-natural Southern inspired baked goods and savories. Because of our small size - quantities and variety may vary from day to day. We begin our mornings baking everything fresh at 4am. Occasionally we do sell-out so COME EARLY. Due to thousands of employees located near the shop - Mon-Fri are days with best variety.
