The Explorers Code A Novel

THE FIRST WORLD WAR 1914-1918 Shattered Ground is told from the perspective of four young men who enthusiastically enlist and believe they are embarking on a great adventure. The 'War to end all Wars' embodied death and destruction on an industrial scale, in breadth and scope never before seen in human history. As the modern world continues to experience conflict, Shattered Ground is still ...

The three captain-majors had led, in the first trip, the respective families, a small group of people of the minor nobility, people of modest conditions and some old prisoners of the kingdom.. To gain the minimum conditions for the development of agriculture, they had to rough-hew a part of the dense forest of laurisilva. Then fires were started, which are said to have burned for seven years.
