Community Reviews. The Orange Houses, by Paul Griffin, is a novel about several different cultural identities. This book deals with not only the culture of a young 16 year old girl coming to America as an illegal refugee, but the life of a deaf girl and a young veteran as well. Each chapter changes view point between one of the three characters, Mika,...

The Orange Houses by Paul Griffin - Goodreads

After an incredible debut novel, Ten Mile River, Paul Griffin shows his ambition with The Orange Houses, but, sadly, his reach exceeded his grasp. Some Amazon reviewers suggest the book is best viewed as a fable, but The Orange Houses didn't work for me on an allegorical level or a realistic level.
