Terminal cancer patient releases his first public service announcement (PSA) aimed at encouraging faster diagnosis of head and neck cancer. It was November 25 th, 2015, the day before Thanksgiving and I was working from home. After responding to some emails that morning, I got ready and tiptoed gingerly up and down the cold white tiles of our bathroom floor, waiting for the shower water to heat up.

At memoir workshops and conferences, eager people with bright faces rush up and tell me about their personal stories. "I have to write this. I have to get it out of me!" Then, they get serious. "There's so much to tell, I don't know where to start!" I love hearing their juicy stories, but they have so many questions. In this article, Linda Joy Myers teaches writers how to begin ...

Read an Excerpt. THE TEN THOUSAND THINGS. My solo three-month hike on the Pacific Crest Trail had many beginnings. There was the first, flip decision to do it, followed by the second, more serious decision to actually do it, and then the long third beginning, composed of weeks of shopping and packing and preparing to do it. There was the quitting my job as a waitress and finalizing my divorce ...
