Christian eschatology is a major branch of study within Christian theology dealing with the "last things." Eschatology, from two Greek words meaning "last" (ἔσχατος) and "study" (-λογία), is the study of 'end things', whether the end of an individual life, the end of the age, the end of the world or the nature of the Kingdom of God. Broadly speaking, Christian eschatology is the ...

Postliberal theology (often called narrative theology) is a Christian theological movement which became popular in the late twentieth century. The movement's proponents argue that the church's use of the Bible should focus on a narrative presentation of the Christian faith as regulative for the development of a coherent systematic theology. Thus Christianity is to be viewed as an overarching ...

UPDATE: It seems that Kenneth Copeland isn't the only preacher the God talks to about Citation X jet planes. Jesse Duplantis now says that God told him to pray about getting a Citation X, an $18,000,000.00 jet plane that has the capacity to fly internationally. Jesse claims that he needs this plane to reach the lost in all the nations as time is short and he needs this plane to hurry things along.
