Justice for All. Chicago's public safety policies have too long addressed the symptoms of crime, without addressing its root causes. We need to assure that every corner of the ward receives timely and respectful service from the Chicago police, while fully funding the services that make communities more stable, secure, and healthy.

The year: 2019. The city: Chicago. A former industrial giant overshadowed by its coastal peers and emerging metropolises abroad. Mega-developers step up to the plate to clear entire swaths of the city and populate vast corridors with anonymous glass skyscrapers and attractions that symbolize Chicago's metamorphosis from a waning post-industrial might to an idyllic 21st-century mega-metropolis.
