It saddens me to have to write this review, but I truly hope this will serve as a warning to other brides-to-be who may be considering the planning services of 'To Have and To Hold OBX' for their weddings. Perhaps it sounds a tad dramatic to say that this company's services ruined the entire wedding. I wish I were exaggerating.

If you've decided to have a no kid wedding, you probably have your reasons, and I'm betting "hating children" is not among them. Chief Revenue Officer Maddie , one of the most kid-obsessed people I know, had a (mostly kinda) kid-free wedding, simply because they had a 250-person guest list without kids.
